All works are supplied on a 100% Sale or Return basis. The products remain the property of The Supplier, named above until one of the following conditions are met. 1) The work is sold by Funky Aardvark C.I.C., at which point ownership is transferred to the end user or 2) Work has remained uncollected for more than 1 week from the end of the exhibition. Work must be collected on the stated collection dates. Work cannot be collected until the dates stated. Any work that is not collected on the stated collection dates will be subject to a storage charge at 10% of the retail value. If the work still remains after 1 week from the end of the exhibition ownership will transfer to Funky Aardvark C.I.C. and the work will be placed in the shop sale or disposed of. Funky Aardvark C.I.C. will sell the work in the exhibition at the price specified by the artist. All VAT Registered artists will be responsible for their own VAT on their portion of the sale. Funky Aardvark C.I.C. will take all reasonable precautions to safeguard the work whilst on the premises, however they do not provide insurance which must be arranged by the Artist if they so wish. The Artist agrees to the fees as stated on this form and has paid them on delivery. Payments for sales are made by direct bank transfer at the end of the following month after end of the exhibition (ie. One month in hand). Bank details must be provided at the end of the exhibition for all sales. This contract is governed by the Funky Aardvark CIC terms and conditions which can be obtained from the website and must be read prior to signing.

Work for Sale - £3 for a small piece (less than 1.5m in any direction) or £4.50 for a large piece. Work not for sale - £6 for a small piece or £9 for a large piece.

Commission is 40% + VAT on all sales. I agree to allow my work to be removed from the exhibition before the end if it sells YES / NO
